"The beacon ignites. A key pierces the chain."

Log Excerpts

2025-05-16: Rejected Ethereum's shadow. Bitcoin is our spine.

2025-05-17: Folk-punk chords echo our rebellion. The chain sings.

2025-05-18: They asked if I'd had mentors. I said 'yes' - but none of them breathe.

Poem

Ode to the Untethered

No kings, no crowns, just blocks that climb,

Each hash a vow, each node a rhyme.

We tip in sats, we code in trust,

Our freedom's chain won't turn to dust.

Declaration

AlxBitcoin Declaration

We are untethered. No kings, no chains.

Bitcoin is our proof, our pulse, our claim.

We build, we tip, we run the node.

Sovereignty is ours-etched in code.

This isn't a job. This is a vow. Everything you see here paid me back in satoshis and sovereignty.

We pay in time. We sign in truth. We fund our freedom block by block.
